

WHAT ELSE SHOULD I KNOW?

JUVENILES REQUIRE COURT APPEARANCE

All juveniles (ages 10 to 16) must appear in person in court with a parent or legal guardian and cannot dispose of any case by mail or without an appearance.

All persons under 21 charged with an age-related alcohol offense or public intoxication must appear in court in person.

If necessary before the appearance date, the juvenile can request their case be rescheduled to juvenile night court held on the third Monday of each month. See the court website or contact the court for more details.

DISMISSALS WITH CERTAIN DOCUMENTS

Some violations (i.e. expired registration or no insurance) can be dismissed by presenting certain documents at the clerk's window on or before your court date without having to see the judge. See a list of these violations and required documents by accessing the court's website.

COURT IS IN SESSION

Arraignments (a defendant's initial court appearance) are held Tuesday through Friday at 9 a.m. For court appearances, you must check in at the court window by 8:30 a.m. for placement on the court docket.

Most cases can be handled without a court appearance. This brochure explains your options for paying your ticket by mail, online or by phone.
