Since the research began in 2004, City of Sugar Land continues to receive high ratings on almost all factors rated. Although in 2009 the bar was raised and residents rated the City extremely high, the challenge for the City has been to maintain the high community expectations. In 2012, the ratings overall have returned to 2006 satisfaction levels in many areas; however, the 2012 ratings are still strong.

- Here are the factors which either maintained the 2009 levels or saw a positive shift in 2012:
  - Quality of Life in Neighborhood
  - Emergency Preparedness
  - Medical Facilities
  - Traffic Mobility Overall
  - Turf/Grounds Management
  - Sugar Land Police Department:
    - Employee Attitude/Behavior toward Citizens
  - Sugar Land Parks:
    - Used City Parks, Rented Recreational Facility, or Attended Event
  - Communication & Information:
    - City Calendar
    - City Community Newsletter
    - Fort Bend Newspapers
Objectives and Methodology

- Creative Consumer Research has conducted a Citizen Satisfaction Study for the City of Sugar Land since 2004. This is a telephone study used to obtain citizens’ opinions about the city.
  - The 2012 study is the fourth wave of this tracking study. Other waves were conducted in 2009, 2006, and 2004.

- Each year the survey is revised to reflect the current issues facing the city, current questions of interest, and collect the most pertinent and actionable information. While modifications are made for each survey, a core group of questions are maintained to track the city’s progress through the years.

- CCR obtained the sample for this study through a vendor which designated whether residents live north or south of Highway 59.

- Throughout the interviewing, CCR monitors specific quotas to represent the demographics of Sugar Land and mirror the respondent population from the previous studies so the results will be statistically comparable.
  - There is less than a 5% variance between the 2012 and 2009 demographic results which are quota controlled with the exception of ethnic background which was adjusted to reflect the population change.
Objectives and Methodology

• In order to participate in the study respondents were required to:
  – Be a resident of Sugar Land for at least 3 months;
  – Not be a member of the Sugar Land City Council or be employed (nor any member of their household) by the City.

• Quotas were implemented for the following categories:
  – West (North of 59) and East (South of 59);
  – Gender;
  – Age;
  – Ethnic background.

• At the beginning of the interview, The City of Sugar Land was identified as the research sponsor.

• The survey was 21 minutes in length, on average.

Dialing for this study occurred from March to April 2012 with a total of 501 interviews completed.
Objectives and Methodology

- Note base changes throughout the report
  - Bases: The number of people who were asked that particular question. For 2012, in most cases, it is N=501. Certain questions have a smaller base because they are only asked of those respondents who gave a specific response to a previous question.
  - ‘Don’t knows’ are reported beneath the appropriate bar chart, if applicable, and are based on total number of people who were asked the question (for the most part, N=501).
Objectives and Methodology

• Statistical testing is done at the 95% confidence level and marked where applicable throughout the report.
  – Meaning there is a 5% or less possibility that the difference occurred by chance alone.
  – In other words, if the study was to be recreated exactly, there is a 95% chance the difference would occur again.
  – All significant differences between 2012 and 2009 are marked on the appropriate chart throughout the report with:
    ➤ Meaning 2012 is statistically higher than 2009
    ➤ Meaning 2012 is lower than 2009
  – While there might be a difference in percentages, if it is not marked, it is not statistically significant and therefore can be considered consistent with previous findings.
• This document reports findings from the 2012, 2009, and 2006 total sample results.
• Detailed statistical tables are available under a separate cover.
Key Findings
Key Findings

- Even though many scores declined in 2012, The City of Sugar Land continues to be highly rated by citizens overall.
  - After achieving incredibly outstanding scores in 2009 it was apparent that The City would have a challenge to maintain such high scores. Most of the factors have declined to pre-2009 status, which is exceptional as well.
  - The curbside recycling program received increased Excellent ratings.

- 93% rate the quality of life in Sugar Land Good (41%) or Excellent (52%).
  - Similar to the 2009 wave, Local Shopping, Beautification of the City, Appearance of the Neighborhoods, Emergency Preparedness, and Medical Facilities receive the highest ratings (at least 90% “Good” and “Excellent”).
  - However, in 2012, Cultural Arts significantly decreased overall from 2009 (79% to 69%). Mobility declined from 77% to 61%, too.
Key Findings

- Consistent with previous waves, 93% agree with the statement: “Sugar Land is a well-planned community that ensures compatible land use for residential, office, and retail purposes”.

- 87% are satisfied with the return for the dollars they pay for City services. This is consistent with 2009 (91%); however, there was a shift from Very satisfied to Satisfied.

- Of all the Transportation services, the Condition of the major and neighborhood streets rates highest at 85% and 86%, respectively.

- Traffic and Mobility overall Excellent ratings are consistent with the previous wave, but Mobility during peak hours declined (shift from Fair ratings to Poor).

- A majority (85%) participate in the Curbside recycling program.

- The most useful City communication media are the website, City calendar, City newsletter, and automated urgent message notifications; all received Very useful/Useful ratings above 80%.
Key Findings

• More have visited the City web site in 2012, 74% vs. 66% in 2009,
  – And of these who visited it, 21% used a mobile device.
  – Web site Excellent ratings declined for overall usefulness and being user-friendly.
  – Although other online sources such as Facebook and Twitter do not rate as highly as traditional methods on usefulness, these sources are methods the City has to consider using going forward.

• More residents are using City parks; 55% in 2012 compared to 45% in 2009. With the exception of the Reservation Process (83%), city parks and facilities receive at least 90% Good and Excellent ratings on all factors:
  – Accessibility (93%);
  – Convenience of location (94%);
  – Cleanliness (94%);
  – Personal safety (95%);
  – Condition/safety of equipment (93%);
  – Grounds Maintenance (96%).
Key Findings

- Overall citizens report feeling safe in 2012. All areas rated but one receive over 90% “Safe” and “Very safe” ratings.
  - In neighborhood during the day (97%);
  - In Sugar Land shopping areas during the day (97%);
  - In neighborhood at night (94%);
  - In Sugar Land parks (95%);
  - In Sugar Land shopping areas at night (84%).

- Residents’ Excellent ratings declined in 2012 for many factors related to the Police Department. However, Excellent and Good ratings are at least 80% for:
  - Courtesy and professionalism (85%);
  - Speed in responding to calls (84%).

- And Very satisfied and Satisfied ratings are high for:
  - Addressing citizens’ safety/concerns (87%);
  - Overall competency of police employees (86%);
  - Employee attitude towards citizen (83%);
  - Crime prevention efforts (82%).
Key Findings

• All respondents rate several factors based on what they have seen or heard, regardless of whether they have had direct contact with the Fire Department:
  – Responsiveness to emergency situations (86%);
  – Effectiveness (87%);
  – Employee attitude toward citizen (85%);
  – Overall competency of employee (86%);
  – Addressing citizen’s fire safety (85%);
  – Responsiveness to non-emergency situations (83%);
  – Fire prevention and education programs (83%).
