

ORDINANCE NO. 1708

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF SUGAR LAND, TEXAS, SUSPENDING THE IMPOSITION OF CERTAIN PERMIT FEES FOR THE REPAIR OF ROOFS AND THE EXTERIOR WALLS OF BUILDINGS.

WHEREAS, because of the damage resulting from Hurricane Ike, the City Council wishes to suspend the imposition of certain fees; NOW, THEREFORE;

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SUGAR LAND, TEXAS:

Section 1. That the imposition of existing permit fees applicable to the following building repairs is suspended:

1. Any roof repair that requires more than one bundle of shingles, but does not require the replacement of shingles for more than 25% of the area of the roof for which shingles are being replaced; and
2. Siding repairs for more than 32 square feet of the exterior walls of any one building.

Section 2. That the suspension of fees applies retroactively beginning at 7:00 a.m. on September 16, 2008, and will continue until the Council repeals this ordinance or the City Manager determines by written directive that the emergency requiring the suspension of the fees is no longer necessary.

Section 3. That this ordinance is effective upon first consideration, five or more members of the Council having voted to dispense with the requirement that this ordinance be considered on two separate days after determining an emergency exists because there is an immediate need to preserve and protect the peace, health, safety, or welfare of the community.

APPROVED and ADOPTED on first consideration on

September 16, 2008
