DEFERRED DISPOSITION (PROBATION)

Deferred disposition or probation can be used to have a case dismissed to avoid a conviction. Using this form, you can request probation in person at the court window or by mail without appearing in court before the judge. Probation cannot be requested online. If you are eligible, you can request probation by signing this form and submitting the form to the court before the appearance date on your citation along with payment of the required costs (see the court website or call the court for the amount). You must also send a copy of your valid driver's license (unless you are requesting probation on a charge of Driving While License Invalid) and a copy of your insurance card or other proof of financial responsibility naming you as a covered driver. At the end of probation, compliance documents can be submitted without a court appearance before the judge.

4. You do NOT currently have liability insurance coverage in which you are named as a covered driver;
5. You were under 17 years of age at the time of the alleged violation;
