

Awards 2002

- Excellence in Park Development for Oyster Creek Park and Trail from the Texas Recreation & Park Society
- Excellence in Procurement Award from The National Purchasing Institute recognizing organizational excellence in procurement, as measured by innovation, professionalism, productivity and leadership.
- Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting from the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada for the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report.
- Sugar Land calendar achieved the Savvy Award (population 40,000-86,000) from the City-County Communications and Marketing Association; an Award of Printing Excellence from Domtar Printing recognizing the publication's outstanding creativity and was a finalist -- population under 90,000 -- for the TAMI Awards sponsored by the Texas Association of Municipal Information Officers
- Project Award for the City of Sugar Land and ECO Resources for South Zone Water Utility System from the National Council for Public-Private Partnerships, recognizing best practices and innovative applications in public-private partnerships.
- City Livability Award from the U.S. Conference of Mayors for its juvenile community garden program
- First Place, Governor's Community Achievement Award from Keep Texas Beautiful for a community involving citizens, businesses, schools, local government and youth in keeping their community beautiful.
- First Place, Government Environmental Award from Keep Texas Beautiful for a governmental entity that supports KTB's mission through litter prevention, beautification/community improvement and solid waste management on a continuous basis.
- Environmental Excellence Award from the Recycling Coalition of Texas for the Sugar Land Litter Less Little League project was awarded to the partnership of the City's Solid Waste Division and the Parks and Recreation Department with Keep Sugar Land Beautiful.
- Achievement Award for the information (marketing) brochure from the International Association of Business Communicators - Houston Chapter.
- Bronze Excalibur Award for speech writing from the Public Relations Society of America - Houston Chapter.